SCN SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY NEWS

The official publication of the Seventeenth-Century Section of the Modern Language Association and also of the Milton Society of America.

Edited by

J. Max Patrick, New York University
Harrison T. Meserole, Pennsylvania State University and published under the direction of the English Departments of Pennsylvania State University — University of Notre Dame

New York University — University of Rochester
Emory University — University of Oklahoma

SCN covers all aspects of seventeenth-century culture, English, American, and European, with emphasis on literature and history. Published four times yearly, it enables specialists and non-specialists to keep abreast of new books and articles about Donne, Milton, and Dryden; Bacon, Browne, and Burton; the dramatists (except Shakespeare); the most recent work on the Metaphysicals and the Cavaliers; Meditative Poetry and Mannerism; the Baroque and Scientific Movements; and all other aspects, major and minor, of seventeenth-century life and thought.

Published with SCN is NEO-LATIN NEWS, which covers all scholarship on literature and ideas in Latin from 1500 to the present.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: $2.00 a year plus $1.50 for each additional year ordered at the same time; e.g., 5 years for $8.00. Make checks payable to Seventeenth-Century News and address them to: Harrison T. Meserole, English Dept., Penn State University, University Park, Pa. 16802.
